

January Networking Luncheon:

Did you know there is a thriving $810M human trafficking industry in San Diego? Come join IREM San Diego to learn how our profession can help fight back.

Bianca Morales-Egan from PCI will be sharing:

- ⇒ How to train your “frontline workers” (security, cashiers, cleaning staff, property managers, etc.) in the signs of human trafficking, as well as recruitment methods used and where to report suspicious activity.
- ⇒ What clauses can you include in your contracts with vendors, renters, and lease holders that will not only raise awareness, but also prevent them from exploiting their staff or residents (i.e., cleaning services, food services, etc.)?
- ⇒ What’s an appropriate place to post the hotline number in your business?
- ⇒ How can you join the business alliance against trafficking?
